Regulations

The West Wilts Scamper

A road safety run for girder forked and small capacity motorcycles

- Date: Sunday 22nd September 2024
- Venue: The Bell, High Street, Yatton Keynell, Chippenham, SN14 7BG
- Summary: A run over a choice of two routes on quiet mainly C and B class roads in the South Cotswolds, primarily for VMCC eligible girder forked machines of any age & capacity and solo motorcycles up to a capacity of 250cc, manufactured before 31st Dec 1999
- Officials: Organiser: Keith Johnston keith.johnston55@hotmail.co.uk 07836 376107
Event Secretary: Martin Hirst gizmomrsduck@aol.com 07963 517114
Route planner and route book editor: Tony Barnett

Restricted to current VMCC members and day members, with an entry limit of 75. Entry to be on the official entry form with payment of £5 in advance. Participants can identify others they wish to ride with. Confirmation of acceptance of entry will be by email or SAE.

Final instructions, the routes in a Tulip format, a list of entrants & their machines and their rider numbers, will be emailed to all participants at least 7 days before the event.

Overnight camping for caravans, tents & camper vans is available locally, including; The Moors, Chippenham, SN14 6HT. <http://www.wiltshirecamping.co.uk>

On the day, parking for vans and trailers will be in the field behind the Bell Public House. No parking in the Pub carpark. Signing on from 08.30 and collection of event rider number. Breakfast baguettes available from 08.30 [details with final instructions]

09.30 Machines depart on participants choice from two routes [75 & 40 miles, with 75 mile riders leaving first], in numbered order, in pairs, at 1 minute intervals. The two routes will be marked, but the Tulip route book will be the definitive method of navigation. There will be no timing element, save the need to finish before a set time [see below].

In order to meet the criteria for Road Safety Runs, we may have at least one secret point on the joint route manned by Section members where a Highway Code question may be asked of participants. This point will be chosen at a location where participants can park safely. The expectation is that no participant will achieve an average speed over the route of more than 24 mph.

The official Finish will close at 14.30. All finishers must sign off. Sunday Lunch will be available from the Bell between the hours of 12 noon to 19.00. Prior booking is advised on 01249 782216

There will be no competitive element to this event and no formal Awards.
